Nature with its gift for creating the unusual has been kind to the old Colorado River, for it flows through a section of Texas that is rich in beauty and resources. Now that four lakes have been created starting at Buchanan Dam in Llano and Burnet Counties, it is only natural that this region abounds in opportunities for boating, camping, fishing and hunting. Visit the lake region; you will find modern conveniences; spend a month, a week, or a day, and enjoy your favorite outdoor sport.
